c. PROCESS DESCRIPTION BASED ON FBBR/MBBR TECHNOLOGY: -

1. MBBR(Moving Bed Bio Reactor) -STP –Sewage treatment system with 5 m3/day Treatment Plant

1.1 SEWAGE TREATMENT PROCESS: Wastewater generated from toilets, bathrooms, is collected via series of drain and is collected in sewage collection tank which is fully enclosed and covered with slab.

2. Collected sewage is treated as per process given below:

2.1 SCREENING:

2.1.1 Solid particles such as clothes, plastics etc are trapped in bar screen and removed manually with help of spade. Screened are cleaned regularly so as to avoid any blockages. Screened matter will be collected and stored in drum for disposal.

2.2 SEWAGE TRANSFER TO AEROBIC FLUIDIZED MEDIA BIO REACTOR:

2.2.1 Two submersible sewage pump of suitable capacity and head is provided in sewage collection tank. This pump steadily delivers the wastewater in to aerobic bio reactor where huge consortium of active biomass is maintained with help of specially designed PP non clog cubes which provides high surface area for biomass development. Oxygen required for biomass development is provided with the help of twin lobe air blowers (1 working + 1 standby). In FBBR/ MBBR biomass in range of 20 to 30Kg/cum is maintained in contrast to only 3 to 5 kg /cum which is available in suspended activated sludge process. Due to such a higher concentration of biomass available, treatment of wastewater is achieved with minimum retention time of 2 hours which otherwise would require 5 to 6 hours. These microorganisms consumed the organic matter present in sewage and reproduce. Since most of biomass is attached on the pp media, sludge formation from this process is minimum and also Sludge recirculation is not required. Overflow from the FBBR is discharged at the bottom of the lamella clarifier.

2.3 TERTIARY TREATMENT:

2.3.1 Clarified effluent is then pumped with the help of filter feed pump through dual media filter where all solid particles and organic Odour if any gets removed. Treated water is disinfected online with the help of sodium Hypochlorite. Treated water is stored in underground treated water storage tank and to be used for gardening and toilet flushing.

2.4 SLUDGE HANDLING & DISPOSAL:

- 2.4.1 Sludge from sludge disposal pump is removed on inbuilt drying bed. Dewatered sludge is sundried and is used as manure for gardening.
